

What is Housing Support?

Housing Support

Our aim:

Is to provide you with help to access housing and services and to encourage you to develop skills so you can live more independently and maximise your opportunities.

We offer advice and help across a broad range of issues including rent and council tax arrears, homelessness, advice on supported housing and supported accommodation, assisting in bidding for accommodation on the housing register, transfers, repairs, adaptations, council policy, managing bills and debt, antisocial behaviour, budgeting, staying in your accommodation, neighbour nuisance, claiming welfare benefits, applying for grants.

It is a free service and is available to all
