

PRESS RELEASE

21st November 2003

The bear gets it

A selection of photographs available

Like many companies, New Charter employees are doing their bit today for Pudsey Bear and Children in Need.

Fund raising events include:

- Our sheltered scheme warden in Mossley who is dressed as "Fairy Liquid"
- The lifelong Stockport County fan who is wearing a Manchester United shirt all day
- Our tallest male dressed as a woman is touring our offices collecting cash in 'her' handbag
- Twenty employees brought in photographs of themselves as babies and ran an identity competition

CONTACTS:

Paula Thomas or David Rigby - New Charter Publicity 0161 331 2000

ENDS

business for neighbourhoods